Media portrayal of lesbianism - Wikipedia
Sappho was an ancient Greek poet who, over time, has become well known for her poetry fragments that frequently dealt with love between women. During the twentieth century, lesbians such as Gertrude Stein and Barbara Hammer were noted in the U.S. avant-garde art movements, along with figures such as Leontine Sagan in German pre-war cinema. Since the 1890s the underground classic The Songs of

Kieran Duffy | Red Dead Wiki | Fandom
Kieran’s father was an Irishman with a dream of farming west in California, but both he and Kieran’s mother later died of cholera. This left the young Kieran orphaned, and the stables where he worked threw him out shortly after. He joined the army but says it “didn’t work out well”. He then fell in with some unnamed outlaws, but they were
